Cumulative Discussion Board Instructions

Do not delete or edit your response after submitting. (I can tell if you have done so.)

Throughout this course, we have tried to use our sociological imagination to understand different aspects of society. In at least 300 words, describe what you see as the key social, cultural, environmental, and political issues facing the U.S. this year. Use at least three concepts from the semester's readings to articulate your argument.

Reply